How TEC Can Answer God's Call to Deeper Discipleship

Dear TEC Family,

"TEC has a unique position in the Catholic Church: to help young people enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ," shared Deacon Bob Sondag, spiritual director for Peoria, Ill. TEC, at the 2007 Congress. "We have been charged with sharing the Paschal Mystery message with them. That should be our main mission in TEC."

Deacon Bob's words raise a few questions for us: How do we prepare ourselves to share this message with the youth and young adults we serve? How do we create an evangelizing and ministering community to support them? What steps must I--and the adult faith community--take to inflame us with the Holy Spirit? Whom can we turn to for support and resources?

"The TEC Conference is committed to provide formation and education of adult leaders, quality resources and a network of support and communication. The Conference remains committed to the development of TEC as an integral part of the vision of total youth and young adult ministry." These are some of the words from the TEC Conference Mission Statement. Thus, our responsibility is to live out these words of support to the highest level. We must be present to the needs of our local communities and the young people they serve, while assisting with the ongoing faith journey of all involved. How is this being accomplished? What resources are available?

Please take time to look over the resource information in the pages that follow, showing what is available for all TEC communities. Besides the insights gained from the material presented, there is also the richness of the dialogue that happens between communities when they are gather together for prayer and formation.

This is exactly what the late Pope John Paul VI's "On Evangelization in the Modern World" calls the entire Church--and therefore the TEC Family as a part of the Church--to do. His document clearly states that the work of spreading the Gospel is the work of an adult Christian community (see TEC Conference Manual Section 8, pg. 4 for more details).

Furthermore, the call to promote and support adult spiritual formation is also detailed in the 1999 U.S. Bishops pastoral plan, "Our Hearts were Burning within Us." The plan out-

"TEC has a unique position in the Catholic Church: to help young people enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ. We have been charged with sharing the Paschal Mystery message with them...How are we preparing ourselves to share this message with the youth and young adults we serve?"

lines three goals:

- to invite and enable ongoing conversion;
- to promote and support active community membership;
- and to call and prepare adults to act as disciples in mission to the world.

The Holy Spirit continues to lead the TEC Movement as we journey forward. May the Spirit guide our TEC Family, as we accept the invitation to deeper discipleship God has placed before us in Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you.... plans to give you hope and a future." Thanks for your continuous prayers, leadership and support of the TEC Movement.

Yours in Christ,

Ronald Reiter
TEC Conference Director

Insights from TEC Patron's Saint

"True charity consists in bearing with all the defects of our neighbor, in not being surprised at his failings, and in being edified by his least virtues. I feel that when I am charitable, it is Jesus alone who acts in me. The more I am united to Him the more do I love all."

Thoughts from the TEC Family...

ON THE COMMUNITIES OF FAITH & FOLLOW-THROUGH WORKSHOP...

"The message of the workshop is so simple: God's family is not just a weekend thing - it's a community, and the most important part of that community is the prayers and support we give each other. The CF&F deals with one question: 'What can we do to make our TEC community a vibrant part of the Body of Christ?' We came away full of enthusiasm about what Sunflower TEC could be. Those seeds have begun to blossom."

~ John Livingston, TEC coordinator, Archdiocese of Kansas City, Kan.

ON THE TEC CONGRESS...

"I had the opportunity to attend the 2007 TEC Congress, "Mary: Our Guide to Perfect Discipleship in Cape Girardeau, Mo. Agassiz Valley TEC has already ordered the DVDs of the Congress and I am really anxious for us to get them. That way, I'm not the only one who benefits from the Congress. The presentations were wonderful and I am glad that we will be able to glean from them here and apply them in our TEC community. It was also good to hear about what is happening in different centers around the country. We now know that we are not alone in our struggles."

~ Sr. Eileen Mohs, OSB, TEC manager, Agassiz Valley TEC, Crookston, Minn.

"I highly recommend that each TEC center send representatives to the Congress. It has helped Grand Island TEC tremendously. We have met with centers from across the country; sharing both our strengths and weaknesses with them and in turn, learned from their experiences. As a group, we listened to relevant national volunteers regarding topics that apply directly to TEC. We also had the opportunity to pray and celebrate together."

~ Kevin Fuller, director of youth ministry

ON THE SPIRITUAL DIRECTORS WORKSHOP...

"The tools for discernment in selecting adult community members and mentors is gold."

~ Joanne Brown, Peterson TEC, Peoria, Ill.

"The insights into the spiritual processes of the TEC weekend were great."

~ Rev. Jason Gries, spiritual director,
Southwestern Indiana TEC, Evansville, Ind.

ON THE RENEWING THE VISION OF TEC WORKSHOP...

"The Renewing the Vision of TEC Workshop we held in September 2005 drew 25 TEC leaders from our diocese and across the region. Even though it meant investing a significant amount of time, the Agassiz Valley TEC Council and other youth and adult leaders were excited about implementing what we had learned and experienced. We are now seeing the fruits of this renewal at our local level. Before, we struggled to reach 15-20 candidates each TEC weekend, now we are averaging 35. That's a significant growth for us in just five years. We pray that each TEC community experiences the same blessings we have!

~ Ray Hollcraft, director of youth ministry,
Diocese of Crookston, Minn.
